Mai & Duang Khum

From the jaws of the dragon to the saving arms of the Lion of Judah is exactly what Mai had experienced.

For those who have not been receiving our regular newsletters, Madam Duang Khum is a nun in a Buddhist Kwan Yin Temple who received Jesus as her personal Savior last year during one of our Buddhist Temple outreaches. She is still the caretaker of the temple, and she continues sharing Jesus to those who are seeking God at the Kwan Yin Temple. About three weeks ago, in one of our visitations (prayer walk/outreach), Mai, who is one of Madam Duang Khum's disciples gave her heart to the Lord Jesus. She was serving as a novice nun staying at the temple. After receiving Christ, she was
