

CARE CORNER ORPHANAGE FOUNDATION

JANUARY - FEBRUARY 2010

Somnuk Chakjog is an orphan. His dad passed away in August 2009 due to HIV/AIDS related diseases, and his mother follow suit in November 2009 for the same reason. A Christian organization working amongst the slums and HIV+ people in Chiangmai Province brought Somnuk to CCO at the end of Oct 2009. He was tested HIV positive. His latest medical report showed that his immune system has only 2% and his CD4 count was 29. By the grace and the mercy of God, we believe God will restore his health. We would like to see Somnuk being touched by the love of God. Please join us to pray for Somnuk's healing. Ask Jesus for a miracle!

Letter from Leann

Alumnus of Fairfield Methodist Secondary School, Singapore

Dearest Pastor Ricky

I hope this finds you well. Having done just a mere one-week stint at Care Corner really influenced my outlook of life since. It's amazing (and to a certain degree, trite) that an action so simple of just living together with children/youths of a slightly less unfortunate background could do. The short stay at CCO really humbled me. There's so many things that we in Singapore take advantage of. A loving home to return to, loving parents who we often forget would do anything and everything for us. I've learnt to be more appreciative since and ever more thankful for the little things, the fact that I have clothes to wear, that I have food on the table. CCO has blessed me with all these.

Hence, as I'm entering adulthood, I would love to give back to the orphanage. I called for donations in the form of clothing and collected them during my birthday party that my family has thrown for me. I urged my family and friends to donate their clothing instead of getting me birthday presents. Some of my friends went out of the way and donated bags, colored pencils, pouches, blankets and caps which I hope could help alleviate the expenses on your part. I do recognized that some of the clothing may not be appropriate for children/youths, however, I hope you could find some use for them, or perhaps sell them, for cash. In short, these are for your disposal.

I'm amazed at how God is working even as I embarked on this little donation. My family and friends were even supportive of the idea and I collected more than I expected to collect, hence, I soon found myself with logistics problems; not knowing how to transport the goods over. But God is GREAT! He provided me with this avenue of transporting. I have a Thai friend who returned to Singapore on business, and has shipment from Singapore to Thailand a couple of days after my birthday, and I have a family friend who works in a cardboard company and hence provided me with the cardboard necessary to pack the donations. God is Great and He is Awesome!

I see how God works in the orphanage as well and I am thrilled to be part of His Kingdom. I would like to take this opportunity for thanking you and your family for embarking on a lifetime of commitment to the orphanage and being a blessing to so many people. Don't stop doing God's work, Pastor Ricky! Your family and the orphanage will always be in my prayers. Take care. God bless and I hope this little contribution would be multiplied in Jesus name! God bless, His faithful servant!
