Mission Trip

On Tuesday October 18, 2006 3 CCOF staff and 13 of the children embarked upon an adventure for God.....

The purpose of this ministry skills training trip was.....

- Learning to share Gospel to non believers.

- Learning to serve God and people

- Taking steps of faith to adventure with God by experiencing Him provide for us and use us for His glory

Day one: Travel.... at 2am on the first day of the trip we reached a village in the central part of Thailand called PHETCHABUN province. We stayed in the family house of CCOF staff member Aun's mother-in-law. Before we went to bed we worshipped and prayed for her family. She told us that her husband just had gone to prison and her youngest son has been in prison for 8 years. Her family "used to be Christian", but had turned back to worshipping demons. Aun, who had shared Jesus with her many times, once again urged her not to blame anyone. Aun urged her to personally repent and come back to Jesus.

God has been powerfully at work in her family long before we arrived that night. Her son in prison is already an energetic Christian leader in the jail....

Day two: We went two hours to Aun hometown near PHITSANULOK. Her hometown is a small village. As we traveled by truck, we were covered with the red dust and very uncomfortable. The village has no electricity. All the houses use solar cells. None of them had heard of Jesus before. The village is surrounded by beautiful mountains. There was bright sunshine and fresh air the day we arrived. We went for prayer walk. We know God works through His people when they humble themselves before Him in prayer, so we were expectant to see what He would do through us!

Later that day we had our first witnessing opportunity there: we visited a grandfather who was a paralytic confined to a bed for 12 years. He could not even speak. We shared the gospel with him.

Day three: We went back to this grandfather's house and spend some time worship in his home. Ree (another CCO staff) preached the Word. The grandfather was getting interested in the Lord! While we were praying for him he cried and through sign language he told his wife he was so happy to see us and wanted us to visit him again.

Day four: we went to the public school to teaching songs, play games and share the gospel to them. The children are open-minded and curious to know God, but it is sad that village doesn't have a Christian community. They worship demons.

.After the school program, we went back to the grandfather's house again to continue sharing God's good news with him. Ree shared about God cured Aeneas from Acts 9:33-34. Mali and Ladee shared their testimonies. Ladee asked him did he want to accept Jesus Christ. His wife told him, "You have done many ways to cure yourself, but none were successful. Why not believe in this God?" He started to cry and nod his head.

Ladee told him that "Although you cannot talk or cannot do anything for Jesus, it's doesn't matter. Just believe that you are a sinner and believe that he is the one real God. He will write your name on his book of life today."

So we led him in prayer. He just laid on the bed while we were praying for him. He mentioned, through sign language, that Jesus had just touched him in a special way. He told us that he felt the love of Jesus upon him.

Day six: we heard that he passed away. We all trust that he was God's reason for us to go there. During the time we learn to serve people by helping them to harvest the rice crop. We were all so tired we felt "out on our feet", but at the same time the joy we experienced made us feel "over the moon" at the same time. We also visited Khao-kho, a famous historical place.

Day seven: on Sunday we attended the church service at Ban Khet Noi church. It is a strong church which is controlled by Hmong people. All the teenagers there are eager to serve God as well. We taught the Bible for the children and Ree spoke. Aun was worship leader with Fa and Ladee. We sang a song and danced for them. It was a wonderful day to worship with them and we were blessed by the church. The church members prepared food for us as well.

Day eight: this was the last day before we returned to CCOF. We went to the local prison with pastor Kasemp. He is serving in PHITSA NULOK and having an ongoing ministry project in the prison. The prison was a dangerous place. They did not allow anyone to enter who was under the age of 15 years. We spent time to worship the Lord there and to listen to the word of God. Aun's husband is doing well. Praise the Lord that now he is a spiritual leader in the prison. As for the members of the Christian group there - they all look so happy and healthy.

God used this trip to change our lives. He also used us in His plan to change the lives of many of the people we met!

Praise the Lord for this special trip. We praise Him for all the sponsors who supported us during the trip. Moreover, thanks for pastor Ricky and his wife who are always good leaders. We thank them for allowing us to go on this trip.
