

Care Corner Orphanage

September 2013

To God Be The Glory!

Eleven years ago, a scrawny tiny child of six years old was sent to Care Corner Orphanage. Her father was serving a long-term prison sentence for illicit drug peddling. Her mother committed suicide when she was one year old. Her grandparents were in prison too for the same reason as her father. She was alone living and fending for herself in the tribal villages up in the mountain of northern Thailand. Picking left-over food from the garbage drum was her daily routine for survival. She was often given food by the villagers who had compassion for her. When nightfall came, she would look for a home to spend the night. Her name is Saichai.

After living with CCO for eleven years, we praise God that she has a family of her own. Presently, she is staying with her in-laws in the mountain. She is helping her mother-in-law in making handmade bags as her livelihood. Her husband works in the farm.

We thank the Lord for your prayers and support in making a difference in the lives of children. Saichai could have been a victim of child trafficker and being lurked or sold into child prostitution eleven years ago.

Please Pray

Please pray for Ameo. She is sixteen years old and come from the Akkha tribe. Her mother passed away two years ago, and that's when the doctor discovered she was HIV positive. Strange enough, Ameo's father was tested negative, but sad to say, Ameo was tested positive. We ended taking her to live in Care Corner Orphanage for a short period of time. During that period of time, Ameo became very sick and was hospitalized. Due to her sickness, we were advised by her physician to send her back to her village. Lay Hwa and Ricky visited her in her village and found her doing very well. We are still praying to see if the Lord wants her to come back to CCO...

- Please pray for the children and staff. Presently, we have 40 children 8 staff and 3 helpers at the orphanage in Sanpatong; 24 children and 3 staff in Mae Tho children's home and 12 children and 1 staff at Chamthong students' hostel.
- Pray that the staff will have the wisdom from above to serve the children effectively and to draw them into the saving knowledge of Jesus.
- Pray for the health of the 8 HIV people living here.
- Pray for the children's studies. The mid school term break will be in mid October. We hope to organize special tuition lesson for those who are weak in some classes in school.
