Is there any hope?

Natawut (nickname: Nate) does not know his father. His mother died of HIV/AIDS related diseases when he was six years old, leaving Nate an orphan.

Young Nate was devastated and seemingly alone in the world.

Nate then went to live with his grandmother and relatives. At the beginning of 2006, Nate learned his grandmother, uncles & aunts are also infected with HIV/AIDS.

Nate went for a blood test, and sadly, he is tested HIV/AIDS positive.

Now not even his relatives wanted him. A seemingly hopeless young life about to be thrown away. Is there any hope in this world for a young, helpless boy like Nate? Does anyone care?

In August of 2006 CCOF was contacted and Nate was brought to us. For two months now God's love has surrounded young Nate through the CCOF staff. As we all know, any person who tastes His love is powerfully impacted and Nate is no exception. He knows he is loved in ways he has never experienced before. And he is learning about Jesus – the source of this love.

Now Nate receives proper daily nutrition and helpful medicines. Through your partnership with CCOF God's love is rescuing and redeeming Nate and dozens like him. Nate still has HIV, but his hope is restored – in Christ!

Nate is now happily attending grade 4 at a nearby school. Who knows what God's future plan might be for this young life?
