Getting to know you ...

Taksin

Taksin Saewang's mother passed away since he was young. No one knows anything about his father.

He was found by a lady at the front of her house. Taksin was only eight months old. He lived with her for five years before he was sent to CCO in April 2008. Taksin is now in grade one.

Yagu Jawa lost both his parents due to HIV/AIDS related diseases. Thank God, Yagu is not infected. He came to CCO in May, 2004. He is attending grade six at the public school next door. We have no record of his date of birth, so we celebrate his birthday on January 1st. He is a quiet boy, and he loves to draw. At a recent prayer meeting, he requested us to pray for him especially to serve the Lord when he grows up.

Pepo

Pepo came to CCO in May 2008. When she was just two years old, her father left them (mother & daughter). No one knows if he is still alive or his where about.

The sad story we heard was that Pepo's mother was lured into vice in another country, and she is now put behind bars.

She is now studying in Kindergarten two. She is adapting well at CCO, but still needs lots of loving care.
